Pre-Employment Screening is a series of checks we carry out to help us make informed decisions about the suitability of individuals to work for or carry out work within the Ministry of Justice (MoJ) and its associated agencies, including Her Majesty's Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS) and Her Majesty's Courts and Tribunal Service (HMCTS).

All individuals entering or changing employment with the Ministry of Justice will undergo some degree of Pre-Employment screening. This will vary in relation to previous employment and will be as detailed as required for the role being applied for.

These checks ensure we comply with current legislation (e.g. Right to Work in the UK) and are essential to assure the integrity of our organisation and the safety of staff and individuals in our care.

You may choose to evidence your right to work via one of two methods, either by presenting a physical document (this must be a document from either List A or List B of acceptable right to work documents as outlined on the Right to Work Checklist which can be found on www.gov.uk), or via the Home Office online checking service. If you can demonstrate your right to work via the Home Office online checking service, you will need to provide your share code and date of birth at interview which will enable the online check to be conducted. Please note your share code is only valid for 30 days from the point it has been issued. Therefore, please ensure you have a valid code on the day of your interview.

Please note the Home Office online checking service only supports checks in respect of those who hold a biometric residence permit; a biometric residence card; status issued under the EU Settlement Scheme; status issued under the points-based immigration system; British National Overseas (BNO) visa; or Frontier workers permit.

If you are not a current MoJ employee, you will be required to present your right to work and ID documentation at the interview or if directed by a VCP before the interview. Failure to do so may mean you are unable to proceed with your interview or have to make a separate appointment to provide this which could delay your application.

The level of checks we will carry out is determined by assessment of a number of factors, including; the type of access you will have to our business units, who you will have contact with and information you will have access to.

Baseline

Minimum level clearance for all individuals entering employment with the Civil Service. As part of this clearance we will request and assess:

- Your ID, Address History, Eligibility and confirmation of Right to Work in the UK
- Criminal Convictions History
- Employment History and References
- Professional Registration / Qualifications checks where applicable to the role
- Countersignatory references where applicable
- Online health assessment where applicable

National Security Clearance

When being considered for a post where you will have access to highly sensitive information, assets or locations then one of three levels of check will be carried out in addition to Baseline:

- Counter Terrorist Check (CTC): is carried out if an individual is working in proximity to public figures or requires unescorted access to certain premises assessed to be at particular risk from terrorist attack or influence.
- Security Check (SC): determines that a person's character and personal circumstances are such that they can be trusted to work in a position which may involve access to 'Secret' information.
- Developed Vetting (DV): appropriate when an individual has long term, frequent and uncontrolled access to 'Top Secret' information.

Disclosure and Barring Service

When being considered for posts working with vulnerable groups, including children you will be subject to checks of:

- Convictions, Cautions, Reprimands and Warnings held in England and Wales on the Police National Computer, the most relevant convictions in Scotland and Northern Ireland may also be included.
- May include check of the new barred lists if requested and any locally held police force information considered relevant to the job role, by Chief Police Officer(s).

2. Pre-Employment Process

1. If you are not a current MoJ employee you need to bring to your interview the original supporting documentation required to validate your Right to Work, ID and Current Address. These will be verified at interview and they can be used to initiate your Security Clearance Checks. All your supporting documentation will be returned to you. See Sections 4 and 5 for lists of ID/RTW and Address documents. In light of COVID 19 – new arrangements have been put in place to verify documents, please see Section 3 below.
2. If successful at interview you will be asked via the eRecruitment system whether you want to provisionally accept the position. If you express a desire to continue in the process then you will be requested to complete an online Security Clearance questionnaire, in which you will be required to upload your Right to Work and ID documents that you brought to interview.
3. If not a current Civil Servant you may be required to complete a Pre-Employment Medical questionnaire via our service provider (OH Assist). If required, you will be registered to the OH Assist online portal and will receive logon details from them via email or in the post.
4. For roles where a security clearance level higher than Baseline is required, you may have to complete an additional application form. You will be notified if this is applicable when your screening checks commence.
5. You must provide full and accurate information as any omissions will delay your application being processed. Please note that giving misleading information or omitting / concealing information during the clearance process is viewed very seriously and would be seen as evidence of untrustworthiness. In such circumstances your vetting clearance may be refused, even if the information you failed to provide would not have been a cause for concern. In addition, clearance could be removed at a later date if misleading information or omissions subsequently comes to light.
6. We will ensure that all information collected during the process is accurate, treated in the strictest confidence and retained / destroyed (as applicable) in an appropriate fashion.
7. Some roles in the Ministry of Justice are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974; you must declare any previous or pending prosecutions or convictions, including those considered "spent" under this Act. You are also required to declare any cautions or bind-overs (parking offences and congestion charge fines are not required). A criminal record does not necessarily mean you will fail vetting; each case is considered on an individual basis and all relevant convictions are taken into account. If you are uncertain about whether the incident is relevant, please declare it, rather than leaving it out.

(Additional information for medical professionals: Registration with the General Medical Council or General Dental Council imposes on doctors and dentists the duty to provide a good standard of medical care for, and behave appropriately, towards patients. MoJ also has a duty to ensure patients receive a good standard of medical care and to ensure, as far as possible, the safety of patients. MoJ therefore needs to establish if you have ever been found guilty of a criminal offence, been bound over or cautioned or are currently the subject of proceedings which might lead to a conviction, an order binding you over or a caution, in the UK or any other country.

Failure to disclose a criminal offence, having been bound over or cautioned or that you are currently the subject of criminal proceedings which might lead to a conviction, an order binding you over or a caution, or fitness to practice proceedings undertaken or being undertaken by an appropriate licensing or regulatory body, will disqualify you from appointment, and result in referral to the General Medical Council/ General Dental Council for consideration if such a discrepancy came to light.)

8. The information you provide is carefully considered by our experienced Decision Makers who are trained to deal with any issues arising during the process. Each case is treated individually, and great care is taken in coming to each decision.

9. Individuals undergoing Pre-Employment Screening are treated impartially and consistently irrespective of any disability they may have, or of their gender, marital status, age, ethnicity, religious affiliation or sexual orientation.

NB. Applicants covered by the Gender Recognition Act may contact Shared Services directly for advice on how to submit their paperwork.

3. Remote ID Verification

Changes in light of COVID 19 – As a result of the pandemic it may no longer be possible to undertake applicant identity verification face-to-face (though this may still continue in some circumstances). Consequently, the following amendments to policy guidelines will remain in place on a temporary basis.

If you are not invited to a face to face interview, online video conferencing will be used by all Recruitment Managers/Vetting Contact Points (VCP) to speak to you and view your documents directly, in order that confirmation of physical identity can be verified.

The amended process to be followed is:

1. You must present photos of your identity and right to work evidence to the relevant Recruitment Manager/VCP at the interview or if directed by a VCP before the interview. This will be augmented by video conferencing as outlined above.
2. Once checked and validated, the Recruitment Manager/VCP will complete the relevant paperwork, noting serial numbers for cross checking. If satisfactory, the successful candidate will receive an encrypted link to the vetting questionnaire.
3. You will then complete the vetting questionnaire and upload the same documents as presented via email or at your interview.
4. If you are advised that your interview will take place online, you must demonstrate your right to work by presenting the relevant documents (see list of acceptable documents) or via the Home Office online checking service and you will need to provide your share code and date of birth at interview which will enable the online check to be conducted. Please note your share code is only valid for 30 days from the point it has been issued. Therefore, please ensure you have a valid code on the day of your interview. This information will also be required in any face to face interviews which may take place.

Please note - the Home Office online checking service only supports checks in respect of those who hold a biometric residence permit; a biometric residence card; status issued under the EU Settlement Scheme; status issued under the points-based immigration system; British National Overseas (BNO) visa; or Frontier workers permit.

5. If you are not a current MoJ employee you will be required to present this documentation at the interview. Failure to do so may mean you are unable to proceed with your interview or have to make a separate appointment to provide this which could delay your application.
6. Where online interviews have taken place, successful candidates will be required to bring the original ID on their first day at the prison or probation office for verification from a Recruitment Manager/Vetting Contact Point.
